

General conditions of participation for events organised by the Alumni Club of the Montanuniversität

Registration and conditions of participation

Registration for our events takes place exclusively via the organiser's website. Registration is only valid after receipt of a confirmation email. Participation requires proper registration and all participants agree to the following conditions.

Cancellation

If participation is not possible, please notify us by e-mail at alumni@unileoben.ac.at.

Participation fee

Participation in the event is free of charge. Exceptions are events with a contribution towards expenses, for example for food and drinks, as well as admission to external companies such as museums, etc.

Cancellation of the event

The event will be cancelled at least 7 days before the start.

Programme changes

The organiser reserves the right to make changes to the programme, e.g. if speakers are unable to attend. Participants will be informed of any changes by e-mail.

Accommodation and travel

Participants are responsible for the costs and organisation of accommodation and travel to and from the event.

Use of data

By registering for the event, participants agree to the storage and processing of their data for the management of the Montanuniversität Alumni Club. Personal data will be deleted upon request.

Photography and filming

Participants agree that photographs or film recordings may be taken during the event and used for advertising and marketing purposes. Persons who do not wish to be photographed or filmed should inform the organiser accordingly.

Intellectual property

All photographs, film recordings and content created during the event are the intellectual property of the organiser and may not be reproduced or distributed without permission.
